The people of Magog are invited to become a part of planning Magog's future. The dates for the citizen consultation are May 29, at the Ovila Bergeron Community Centre at 6:30 p.m till 9:30 p.m, and June 9 in the basement of the St John Bosco Church at 1 p.m to 4 p.m.

The Strategic Planning Committee has been busy the last few months. This group is made up of key people in the community, who make decisions about the internal and external environment of Magog to be able to develop a vision of Magog for 2031.

"How do we see Magog in 20 years?" said Mayor Vicki May Hamm. "This is the question we want to answer."

Hamm says the group wants the participation of the city.

"It's time for our citizens to share their views and ensure a future for our city reflecting a shared vision."

Those interested can register online, by phone at 819 843-6501, or in person at the reception desk in City Hall (7 Main street east).

Armand Comeau, the director general of Magog, said for people to be well prepared they will unveil, a few weeks before the citizen consultations, the results achieved by the strategic planning committee. "All these documents will be on the website," he said. The result of the citizen consultation will help develop an action plan that will be introduced in Fall 2012.

Citizens can stay informed about the process by visiting www.imaginonsdemain.com ^[1] and following the Facebook page "Magog: Imagine Tomorrow" (Magog: Imaginons demain).
